Subject : GUIDELINES IN THE REVISED NEW CURRICULUM

Pursuant to Legal Education Board (LEB) Memorandum No. 24, Series 2021, on The Revised Model Curriculum of the Basic Law Program, the Arellano University School of Law (AUSL) will be offering the attached Revised New Curriculum, subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The Revised Model Curriculum shall be implemented in the First Semester of Academic Year (AY) 2022-2023;
2. The Revised Model Curriculum shall apply exclusively to newly admitted students;
3. Accordingly, the AUSL shall only offer the first-year subjects under the Revised New Curriculum in the First and Second Semesters of AY 2022-2023 and subjects for higher years shall only be offered in the ensuing years consistent with the Revised New Curriculum;
4. The Revised New Curriculum may provide for different course description/course specifications and corresponding pre-requisite subjects vis-à-vis the old curriculum; and
5. Freshmen students who were admitted during the Second Semester of AY 2021-2022 may be eligible to migrate to the Revised New Curriculum upon written request to and approval by the Dean.

All students are encouraged to complete the subjects under the applicable curriculum upon which they were admitted to avoid any confusion and complications in the future, taking into consideration the schedule of the subjects per semester.

For your information and guidance.
